Part II Organizational Action Attach additional statements if needed. See back of form for additional questions.

14 Describe the organizational action and, if applicable, the date of the action or the date against which shareholders' ownership is measured for the action ▶ In January 2019, FS Energy Total Return Fund (the "Fund") issued its 2018 Form 1099-DIV, Dividends and Distributions, to shareholders of the Fund. Non-taxable return of capital distributions represented approximately 63.998% of total distributions distributed to shareholders in April, July and October 2018. Non-taxable return of capital distributions represented 0.000% of total distributions distributed to shareholders in December 2018. The source of non-taxable distributions is distributions received from partnerships that were not backed by earnings and profits. The source of the non-taxable distributions is not from investor proceeds or borrowings.

15 Describe the quantitative effect of the organizational action on the basis of the security in the hands of a U.S. taxpayer as an adjustment per share or as a percentage of old basis ▶ The non-taxable distributions paid to shareholders who received all distributions paid during the 2018 calendar year results in a reduction in basis of approximately $0.29 per share for Class A shares, approximately $0.30 per share for Class I shares and approximately $0.28 per share for Class T shares. There were no non-taxable distributions paid to shareholders for the December 2018 distribution. See below for summary of non-taxable distributions per share per distribution during the year ended 2018.

April 2018 - Class A - $0.10; Class I - $0.10; Class T - $0.09
 July 2018 - Class A - $0.10; Class I - $0.10; Class T - $0.09
 October 2018 - Class A - $0.09; Class I - $0.10; Class T - $0.09
 December 2018 - Class A - $0.00; Class I - $0.00; Class T - $0.00

16 Describe the calculation of the change in basis and the data that supports the calculation, such as the market values of securities and the valuation dates ▶ The shareholder's basis after non-taxable return of capital distributions is reduced by the per-share amounts noted above for shareholders who received all of the distributions paid during the calendar year ended 2018 and a smaller amount for shareholders who held shares less than a full year based on the description in item 15 and for shareholders who bought shares in the later half of the year due to no non-taxable distributions paid to shareholders for December 2018 distributions.

Part II Organizational Action (continued)

17 List the applicable Internal Revenue Code section(s) and subsection(s) upon which the tax treatment is based ▶ Internal Revenue Code Section 301 and Section 316

Blank lines for listing applicable Internal Revenue Code sections.

18 Can any resulting loss be recognized? ▶ No loss is recognized by the shareholders at the time of the non-taxable return of capital distributions are received. The shareholder's cost basis should be adjusted to reflect the return of capital distributions which may affect the gain or loss recognized by the shareholder on the subsequent disposition of shares.

Blank lines for providing information regarding loss recognition.

19 Provide any other information necessary to implement the adjustment, such as the reportable tax year ▶ The non-taxable return of capital distribution information provided above was reflected on the shareholder's Form 1099-DIV in Box 3, nondividend distributions, to the extent the form was applicable for the shareholder for the 2018 calendar year.

Blank lines for providing other information necessary for the adjustment.
